YORK LIFE FIGHTING CASE

[illegible] to the Gazette
[illegible] CREEK, Nov. 10.—An answer was filed in the district court today by the New York Life Insurance [illegible] in the suit recently brought by [illegible] of Victor to recover the [illegible] of a policy of $2,000 claimed [illegible] from the defendant company on [illegible] of the death of the plaintiff's [illegible] and [illegible]. The answer alleges that the [illegible] Mrs. J. Brown was not authorized to make a contract for the company and there were other irregularities [illegible] policy invalid. A motion [illegible] change of venue to Denver was filed by the defendant.

INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE ADJOURNS TILL NEXT WEEK

[illegible] YORK, Nov. 10.—Closing the [illegible] of the week today the Armstrong [illegible] has behind it a mass [illegible] figures which while of [illegible] little interest to the laity is [illegible] value to the committee [illegible] greater part of the week has been [illegible] to the Metropolitan Life Insurance company the examinations of [illegible] Hegeman and James Craig [illegible] of the company, being of a [illegible] technical character. When adjournment was taken today the committee had not finished the examination of President Hegeman and he will [illegible] again next week.

[illegible] before adjournment today Mr. [illegible] was excused and Joseph [illegible] Jr., a writer, who has been [illegible] by the Mutual Life, was called [illegible] stand. He identified vouchers [illegible] he had signed for money received [illegible] advertisements and reading [illegible] for the Mutual. Mr. Howard [illegible] much amusement by his declaration that his only regret was that [illegible] could not sign more of them [illegible] His only complaint was that he [illegible] not paid enough for his work. This [illegible] the complaint on the witness [illegible] of Charles Smith, who also [illegible] writing for the Mutual Life and received [illegible] a year.

Mr. Howard said he had been employed 30 or 40 years by the Mutual Life but the vouchers went back only to 1899. There were ten of these vouchers, aggregating $1,[illegible]. Mr. Howard denied that he had ever sent any dispatches by wire and was very strenuous in his assertion that he had never written a line about insurance for any paper on which he was employed, characterizing it as "a dirty trick."

William Barnes, Sr., appeared before the committee at his own request and was the first witness of the day. Mr. Barnes' name appeared in the investigation several weeks ago when vouchers were produced for legal services. Mr. Barnes explained his connection with the insurance companies and answered the questions put to him and when his examination had been concluded asked to be allowed to make a statement. He was given the privilege and had proceeded but a little way when he was stopped by Senator Armstrong because Mr. Barnes' statement was argument in defense of insurance companies along the lines brought out in the investigation.

LAND BOARD TO INVESTIGATE THE SALE OF TIMBER RIGHTS

DENVER, Nov. 10.—Governor McDonald today issued the following notice [illegible] public regarding the investigation about to be made into the sale of [illegible] timber land rights in Grand [illegible]

[illegible] May Concern
[illegible] to me as president of the [illegible] board of land commissioners that [illegible] Gyllenstein of the city and county [illegible] Denver, did on the eighth day of [illegible] 1905 purchase all of the timber above [illegible] inches in diameter situated upon [illegible] township [illegible] south, range 76 west [illegible] said section belongs to and is a part [illegible] school lands granted for the support of the common schools of Colorado, from which the largest possible revenue should be at all times [illegible] the state board of land commissioners [illegible] and it appearing to me to [illegible] in connection with said sale [illegible] timber so sold to the said Frank Gyllenstein or the contract issued in consequence of said sale to be recognized by the state board of land commissioners until further notice, that a copy of this order be recorded in the office of the county clerk and recorder of Grand county as public notice of the determination of this [illegible] investigate said matter and that a copy be recorded in the records of the state board of land commissioners.

Given under my hand and the seal of the state board of land commissioners this tenth day of November, 1905.

JESSE F. McDONALD
President of the State Board of Land Commissioners.

Governor McDonald and the other members of the land board declare there will be a rigid and impartial investigation of the sale of timber and rights in Grand county. The scope of this inquiry may be broadened so as to include transactions occurring in the land department covering a period of years.

Reform Wave Strikes Cripple Creek District With Renewed Force.

LEADERS ACTIVE

LID TO BE ON TIGHT SUNDAYS. DANCE HALLS TO GO AND SALOONS MUST OBSERVE CLOSING LAWS.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Nov. 10.—A moral wave has descended with tidal force on the towns of the district and as a result all vice, all infringement of law, it is declared, must cease. Nothing may be sold on Sunday that is not absolutely necessary to the preservation of human life. The dance hall at Victor was closed yesterday, those of Cripple Creek today. They will not be reopened if the order stands. No intoxicants may be sold from midnight until 6 o'clock a. m. of any week day and not at all on Sunday. Slot machines and all other devices of chance are barred at all hours. No clubs will be allowed to have any form of gambling. Every house of ill fame must close at midnight Saturday and remain closed until Monday morning. Clubs will not be allowed to sell or serve liquor from midnight Saturday until Monday morning. After the theatrical performances next Sunday all theaters will be darkened Sunday night.

The order to close dance halls at once, to stop gambling at once and to close saloons at midnight and on Sunday came from C. A. Gillette, deputy district attorney. The order to close theaters, clubs, soda fountains, cigar stands and other business on Sunday will come from Sheriff Bell and City Marshal Sharpe of Cripple Creek if it is promulgated. Whether or not the general order in prospect for no Sunday employment will extend to the mines, of which there are about 4,000, has not been learned.

Responsibility for the prohibitive condition, that outlined by Messrs. Bell and Sharpe, is attributed to a political difference in which Bell, Sharpe and followers are on one side and General F. M. Reardon of Victor, Dan M. Sullivan of this city, both postmasters, along with their following, are on the other. Sullivan and Reardon are political leaders. Sullivan's lead was not followed at the last Republican convention and certain officeholders are not following the plan of Reardon. This breach has been widening for months.

The raid on Cripple Creek gamblers marked its beginning. Reardon and his followers were active at that time in suppressing the games. In many contentions legal and political sides have been taken by some members of the opposing element for many months. The officials of Victor were not overlooked in the warfare of Reardon. Last night he was followed by 100 persons, men, women and children, among them ministers and church members, in an attack against the mayor and aldermen of Victor. Reardon and his followers insist on decency and order throughout the district. Sheriff Bell and Marshal Sharpe are taking up the matter where [illegible]

RED MEN MAKING RAID ON COLORADO RESERVES IN RIO BLANCO COUNTY.

HAVE BEEN OFF RESERVATION FOR A WEEK—GAME COMMISSIONER AND WARDEN HASTEN TO SCENE.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 10.—News has been received here that the annual raid of the Ute Indians from the Uintah reservation on the Colorado game is in progress. The Indians have been off the reservation for at least a week.

Game Commissioner Woodard and the local district game warden are now on their way to the lower end of Rio Blanco county where the Indians are reported to be ranging.

The Indians are not causing any trouble to the settlers in the vicinity where they are hunting. They are simply after game.

SECRET IS REVEALED

Papers Long Concealed Confirm Marriage of George IV to Mrs. Fitzherbert.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—By permission of King Edward, the Daily Chronicle asserts, a package of papers consigned to the care of Coutts' bank by Mrs. Fitzherbert (Maria Anne Smythe) under the stipulation that it was not to be opened for a long period, has now, after 70 years, been opened and proved to contain the marriage certificate and other indisputable proofs that George IV. was actually married to Mrs. Fitzherbert.

Mrs. Fitzherbert became the wife of the Prince of Wales, afterward George IV, in Dec. 1785. The marriage of the prince was invalid under English law, though it was sanctioned by the Roman Catholic church of which Mrs. Fitzherbert was a member. It was expected that the papers in Coutts bank would settle a question which has agitated the British public for over a century as to whether there was issue from the marriage, but there is nothing in the dispatch to indicate that the question has been solved. It had been long reported that there was actually a male child and that this child emigrated to the United States and settled in Washington, where he died some years ago, after living very quietly, but in good circumstances.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 10.—It is announced that martial law will be declared throughout Poland.

MOSCOW, Nov. 10.—Alarming rumors are in circulation that anti-Jewish outbreaks will occur simultaneously here and at St. Petersburg next Sunday. Foreigners and Jews have received threatening letters and have asked the authorities for protection, but thus far no step has been taken toward granting the request.

WARSAW, Nov. 10.—Representatives of all political parties in Poland at a meeting held in the palace today decided to send 20 leading citizens to St. Petersburg to request the emperor to grant Poland full autonomy and its own parliament.

RADOM, Russia, Nov. 10.—The agrarian disorders here are assuming a grave aspect. The peasants are engaged in pillaging and burning the spirit shops and the state institutions. The city proper has been quiet up to the present.

COURT DISMISSES SUIT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The appellate division of the New York state supreme court today handed down a decision dismissing a suit brought by John R. Platt against Hannah Elias, a negress, to recover $685,000 which Platt asserted he had given to her under coercion. The court stated in the decision that it was not made on the merits of the case.

GRAND JURY [illegible] REPORT CONCERNING BALLOT BOXES CHARACTERIZED AS FALSE

[illegible] Nov. 10.—[illegible] Hearst leaders found [illegible] from State Superintendent of Elections Morgan [illegible] possession of the boxes. President John R. Voorhis of the [illegible] of elections said that the grand jury [illegible] requested him to deliver to [illegible] registry book of the fifth election district of the Twenty-sixth assembly district. The book was given to the jury.

The situation today was described by William R. Hearst as follows:

"The law committee has discovered some very amazing things and the deeper we go into this thing the uglier it looks. We have evidence against 13 [illegible] [illegible] and I am confident [illegible] two or three of them [illegible] just as much interest [illegible] the criminal prosecution of this [illegible] as I am in the recount. SENATOR BURTON INDICTED BY FEDERAL GRAND JURY AGAIN

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 10.—The federal grand jury convened today, returned an indictment late today against United States Senator Burton, of Kansas. It is stated that certain features in the former indictment against Senator Burton which were quashed, were remedied in this new indictment.

The allegation in the present indictment is the same as in the one quashed, that while a senator of the United States he accepted money from the Rialto Grain and Security company of St. Louis, for services rendered before the postoffice department in behalf of that company, which was being investigated by inspectors. The only change is in the legal wording of the indictment which is different to avoid the errors found in the former by United States Judge Vandeventer.

The federal grand jury was sworn in today by Judge Vandeventer and then, it is stated, spent the entire day in the examination of witnesses who with one or two exceptions were employes of the postoffice department. Chief Postoffice Inspector Vickery of Washington, W. G. Cochran, purchasing agent of the postoffice department of Washington, Inspector-in-Charge R. M. Fulton, of St. Louis and Inspector-in-Charge Joseph P. Johnson, of New Orleans, were the principal witnesses.

This indictment is the third found against Senator Burton and should a demurrer be sustained it will be impossible to ever reindict him for his alleged offense in connection with the Rialto company owing to the statute of limitations.

missing ballot boxes was foolish. The board, he said, knew how many boxes it gave out and as far as he knew all that should have come back have been received. He declared that the story about ballot boxes being found in the river is all false.

It was announced at Tammany Hall today that Tammany district captains have secured evidence showing frauds committed by Hearst's supporters on election day. Several leaders said that while a recount might lessen McClellan's vote, the counter charges of fraud which they intend to bring against the Hearst organization will likewise bring about the lessening of the Hearst vote and that in this way, an equal reduction will be made in the vote which will not affect the result.

An offer was made in Wall street today to bet $10,000 against $50,000 that William R. Hearst will be seated as the next mayor of New York.

FAILS AT SUICIDE AND BREAKS JAIL

CANON CITY, Colo., Nov. 10.—J. Merletto, an Italian confined in the county jail, after an unsuccessful attempt to take his life by slashing his throat with a broken tablespoon, succeeded in overpowering the jailer at an early hour this morning and escaped.

Merletto stabbed four men in a saloon at Coal Creek, a nearby mining camp, and was taken to Florence. A report was current that a mob was gathering to take him from the jail and lynch him. For safe-keeping he was removed to the jail at Canon City. Officers are after him.

MARQUIS ITO IS IN KOREA

AFTER INVESTIGATING CONDITIONS AND FORMULATING POLICY HE WILL MAKE HIS REPORT.

SEOUL, Nov. 10.—The arrival of Marquis Ito tonight probably marks one of the most portentous events in the history of Korea. During his visit the hermit kingdom, once an independent state, will probably become a Japanese protectorate. Marquis Ito after investigating conditions here and formulating his policy, will present the program of Japan. It is said that he hopes that confidence displayed in him by the emperor of Japan will have its effect on the emperor of Korea and induce a graceful submission to the inevitable loss of Korea's independence. Upon his arrival here Marquis Ito was received with imperial honors. In the emperor's state coach he was driven through the streets. Lantern bearers followed with chairs carrying his distinguished suite. He was lodged at the imperial palace as a guest.

JAMES M'PHILLIPS CONFESSED MURDER

CRIPPLE CREEK, Nov. 10.—James McPhillips, aged 45, committed suicide near the Lake George mine, in the vicinity of Lake George, on the Colorado Midland, 25 miles north of here, last Monday, according to information received here today. His body was buried at Florissant Wednesday by the coroner of Park county. McPhillips is believed to have been a resident of this city.

McPhillips has been employed as a miner upon a property on Blue mountain under Superintendent Kellogg and had acknowledged murdering a man at Leadville. When he failed to appear for work Monday morning Mr. Kellogg went to McPhillips' cabin and found the man lying across the bed with his throat cut from ear to ear. Dr. Williams of Fairplay conducted the inquest as acting coroner, and Howard Sherman was foreman of the jury.

A. J. FORBES-LEITH RAISED TO PEERAGE

LONDON, Nov. 10.—King Edward's birthday honor list includes the raising to the peerage of Alexander J. The honor is conferred for the services rendered by Mr. Forbes-Leith in organizing a system for providing volunteers and in providing supplies during the South African war.

NANSEN AND HAUGE GET APPOINTMENTS

CHRISTIANIA, Nov. 10.—Fridtjof Nansen, the Arctic explorer, has been appointed Norwegian minister to Great Britain. H. G. Hauge, at present charge d'affaires at Washington, has been appointed minister at the capital.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Christian Hauge, the charge d'affaires of Norway here, whose appointment as minister to this country is announced from Christiania, was secretary of the legation of Norway and Sweden here from 1891 until the outbreak of the recent revolution, when he resigned, but remained in this country awaiting instructions from the Norwegian government. Mr. Hauge's home is in Christiania. In May of last year he married an American, Mrs. Frederick Joy, of Louisville.

ROOSEVELT TEMPLE OF PEACE RECOMMENDED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The tribute paid to President Roosevelt in London in connection with the lord mayor's parade, has directed attention here to a suggestion emanating from J. Selwin Tait, local representative of the International banking corporation, that the triumph of the president as a peacemaker be perpetuated by the erection in the capital city of a magnificent "Roosevelt temple of peace."

The author of this project feels that there will be no difficulty in raising by public subscription a fund sufficient to erect a structure in every respect worthy of the triumph at Portsmouth. The suggestion is that there be erected a building of heroic proportions to be used for conventions and meetings of national character to be of rich design with ornamentations emblematic of peace and, perhaps symbolic of the success of Roosevelt in tightening the bonds of brotherhood between the North and South.

PORTLAND JEWS TO AID RUSSIAN BROTHERS.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 10.—A committee composed of representative men of the Jewish colony here today realized $5,000 in less than two hours to be devoted to the relief of stricken Jews in Russia. The money was telegraphed to New York and a promise of additions to the fund was made.

TABOR, IOWA, BANK OPENS DOORS AGAIN.

DENVER UNIVERSITY.

This is the way the football men representing Colorado college and Denver university will face each other this afternoon on Washburn field. The game is one of the most important of the year, being of the championship series of the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate league and deciding who will play the School of Mines eleven for the championship of the league. The game will be called promptly at 3 o'clock.

The college line-up differs from that played against the Aggies last Saturday in two respects. Fisher, by his excellent playing of the last week, has won back his position at left end, and Hatfield will again be seen among the substitutes. Fawcett, the giant left guard, is still suffering from his injured knee, which put him out of the game last Saturday on the fifth down, and Roberts, the big colored man, will appear on Morgan's left. Aside from these changes the Tigers are in the best of condition and are prepared to put up the game of their lives. "Shorty" Randolph will probably take quarter in the second half, allowing Captain "Billy" Johnston to relieve Fisher or Lennox at end. Painter, the man who runs like a deer, will also get into the game at half-back before the game is over.

D. U. is sending out reports of a crippled team, but these may be only for effect. The Denver players will outweigh the Tigers considerably, but lack that speed which helped the Tigers sweep the Aggies off their feet last week. It is hardly thought that D. U. will attempt to play Strum, the big full-back of D. A. C.—such action would be entirely too raw. If they do play him the Tigers will protest the game just to save their amateur standing, and not because they are afraid that he can twist the Tiger's tail.

To those who follow the "dope" it looks as if the Tigers should win by four or five touchdowns. The betting is 5 to 3 on the locals. Coach Richards says: "I will be disappointed if we do not win 24 to 0."

Captain Johnston says: "We will win by three or four touchdowns." The Denver players are not optimistic over the game and are rather looking for defeat.

The Denver men will arrive on a special C. & S. train this morning at 11 o'clock accompanied by 200 rooters. The college rooting club will attend the game in a body, 250 strong.

D. U. VS. Y. M. C. A. AT BASKETBALL

MOST IMPORTANT GAME OF SEASON TONIGHT AT Y. M. C. A. GYMNASIUM—VOLLEYBALL MATCH FOLLOWS.

The most important basketball match of the season will be played in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium this evening by the association team and the five representing Denver university. The game will be called at 7:30 o'clock and a large crowd of enthusiasts will undoubtedly be present, as there will be 200 D. U. students in town and almost the entire membership of the association will turn out.

"I saw D. U. play last week and think we can beat them," said D. L. Hoffer, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., last night. The local men are in fine shape for the go. The Y. M. C. A. team will have the following line-up: Sinton and Schmidt, forwards; St. John and Hiller, guards; French, center. The D. U. line-up has not yet been announced.

Following the basketball game the Yellows and the Whites will play volleyball. Dillman captains the Yellows and William Barber the Whites. The volleyball game will be free, but an admission will be charged for the basketball contest.

STORY A CLOSE SECOND TO MR. KIPLING'S "THEY"

When "James Watson and valet" of London, England, were created by a correspondent of a Denver newspaper, they had the advantage of the first man, Adam, because the Antlers was awaiting their signature, whereas history fails to record that Adam had any such modern convenience. By a singular lapse of memory the hotel clerk assigned the seeker of a long lost brother whose memory was haunted by a Spanish danseuse to a room which does not exist. In reality it may have been the clerk's sense of the fitness of things to assign guests who existed only in the mind to rooms that had no existence in space.

ACCUSED SALOON MEN AND GAMBLERS DISMISSED.

DENVER, Nov. 10.—The accused saloon keepers and gamblers tried at the West side court where they have been either discharged or found guilty, were today dismissed from further custody on the complaints made against them in Judge Frank T. Johnson's division of the district court.

TERRORS AFTER CHAMPIONSHIP

To win or to lose the championship of the southwestern division of the Springs High School Terrors will leave for Pueblo this morning at 9:30 o'clock on a special Colorado & Southern train. They will play Centennial High school of Pueblo this afternoon and the winner will play the champions of the northern division Thanksgiving day. Three hundred rooters will accompany the team.

The Terrors expect to win, but are not looking for a large score. About 18 to 0 is the "dope." Advices received last night from Pueblo state that Captain Lannon, right half, and O'Brien, fullback, two main-stays of the Centennial eleven, are badly crippled and may not be able to play.

PRINCE LOUIS WILL SEE FOOTBALL GAME

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Perhaps the most interesting incident of the second day of the visit of Prince Louis of Battenberg, to New York was his informal reception of a delegation of New York reporters in his cabin tonight. For the second time his highness talked to them and with the utmost frankness, answered some of their searching questions and foiled others. There were three scheduled events on the prince's program today, the first being a luncheon at Governors island with Brig. General Grant. This was an elaborate affair and was attended by a distinguished company.

After luncheon the prince attended a brilliant reception at the New York navy yard, where Rear Admiral Coghlan was the prince's host. Tonight the prince and the officers of the two squadrons were the guests of the naval academy alumni banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria.

The Prince will go to West Point tomorrow on the steamer of C. W. Morse. He will witness the football game between West Point and the Carlisle Indians, and after the game will return to New York on a special train in time to attend the dinner of Col. and Mrs. Robert [illegible].

ABRAHAM SCHIFFER HAS BEEN ARRAIGNED

ALAMOSA, Colo., Nov. 10.—Abraham Schiffer, one of the owners of the bank of Alamosa, which suspended business recently, and who was arrested in New York, was arraigned here today. He waived preliminary examination and is held in bonds of $70,000. Schiffer expects eastern friends to supply the bond and in the meantime will remain the custody of the sheriff.

PRESIDENT ASKS FOR A REPORT

IS INVESTIGATING MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF MIDSHIPMAN BRANCH AT ANNAPOLIS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president has called upon Secretary Bonaparte for a report on certain features of the case of Midshipman Branch, who died at the naval academy at Annapolis after a glove fight with another midshipman.

Secretary Bonaparte today made a request of the superintendent, Admiral Sands, for the specifications desired. At the conclusion of a long conference with the admiral it was stated that no action had been determined upon, although it was indicated that there might be a statement from an official quarter tomorrow. It was stated that, according to information before the department, the indications are that the death of Branch was caused by repeated blows on the head.

Secretary Bonaparte said today that the practice of fighting at the academy was very objectionable and would be discouraged.

FLORENCE MEN TO INCORPORATE NEW CEMENT COMPANY

DENVER, Nov. 10.—A News special from Florence, Colo., says:

"Alan Moore, manager of the Portland Cement works at Portland, in this county, with C. Leonard of Los Angeles and Charles Boeticher of Denver, will leave for Utah to incorporate a new cement company and build a plant near Reno. The plant will have an output of 2,000 barrels a day, each barrel weighing 340 pounds, and the works will cost $1,000,000 complete. The construction work will start not later than next January.

CONFESSES TO THEFT OF VALUABLE GEMS

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Confession to the robbery of $100,000 worth of gems from fashionable New York homes in the last two years was made today by Harold Prescott, a painter. His profit on pawning the jewelry, Prescott said, was but little over $5,000. Immediate search of pawshops named was made, and the police say they have recovered $20,000 worth of stolen gems. Prescott was later sentenced to five years in Sing Sing.

DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR RULES ARE MODIFIED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—With the double purpose of offering a permanent career in the diplomatic and consular service to competent young men and of improving these branches of the government service so as to make them more valuable than they are now to the business interests, [illegible] president at the instance of Secretary Root today announced two new rules.

The first of these has not yet taken concrete form, but its substance was that hereafter any applicant for appointment as secretary of embassy or legation must possess a knowledge of at least one other language than English and must be otherwise examined as to his competency. This rule is closely in line with the English practice, and its development will involve the promotion of the bright young men in the diplomatic service in the degree that they justify it by hard study fitting them for new posts.

The order as to the consular service amends the existing rule which requires the examination of such consular officers as are limited in compensation to the maximum of $2,500 and a minimum of $1,000.

In President Cleveland's administration an effort was made to examine all applicants for consular positions, but this was soon abandoned and the limitation now in vogue was adopted. The purpose is to take consular service away from political preferment and to make promotion as well as appointment dependent upon merit.

REPUBLICANS OPPOSED TO JOINT STATEHOOD

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 10.—The territorial Republican committee met in special session today in this city and passed strong resolutions against the proposed jointure of Arizona and New Mexico. The resolutions ask for statehood on behalf of the Republicans for New Mexico within present boundaries and demand a "square deal" from congress and the president.

SERIES OF ADDRESSES FOR THE WORKINGMEN

Hassell Iron Works—Tuesday noon.

Colorado Midland shops—Wednesday noon.

Roswell shops—Thursday noon.

This is the schedule arranged yesterday for the Rev. Joshua Gravett of Denver, who comes to Colorado Springs next week to give straight talks to "men only." In addition to the above meeting, the Rev. Mr. Gravett will speak to men every evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. building and Wednesday afternoon to boys. Noon meetings will probably be held down town Monday and Friday, if a suitable meeting place convenient to business men can be secured.

John H. Pape of this city, a former evangelist in London, will be the principal speaker at the memorial services to be held at the association building Sunday afternoon, November 19, for Sir George Williams, who founded the Y. M. C. A. in London in 1844, and who passed away in that city last Monday. Mr. Pape will speak of the great work accomplished by Sir George Williams.

The Rev. G. W. Gammon of Pueblo will address the 4 o'clock men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon.

FORCED LIQUOR SALE BROUGHT IN ONLY $75

The sale of liquors seized under attachment by the sheriff at the "Ml" at the Gardens was held at Colorado City yesterday and netted $75. The stuff was bought in by the Wagner-Stockbridge company. The sale was made under a special execution issued from the county court to satisfy a judgment for the sum of $1,365.50 and costs amounting to $19.91, making a total of $1,385.41 in favor of the Wagner-Stockbridge company against C. O. Vaughan.

BOTTLE OF TESTIMONY BROKEN BY ACCIDENT

A full bottle of testimony used in some of the liquor cases recently on trial in the county court was broken yesterday afternoon in the vault of the clerk's office of the county court. The bottle contained beer and perfumed the office for many hours. The accident was due to one of the large record books falling upon the bottle. Many of the court house officials seemed sad in consequence.

RESIDENCE SOLD AT AUCTION FOR $14,000

J. W. Yates, bidding for Yates & McClain, purchased the handsome sixteen-room residence at 1823 North Nevada avenue yesterday afternoon for a cash consideration of $14,000. Mr. Yates bought it for his firm as a speculation. J. F. Thomas, the former owner, desired to sell it because it was too large for a residence for himself and because his business will call him to southern California for the remainder of this winter. The property was sold at public auction by J. W. Coffey. Fifty people were present and six persons made bids. The nearest bid to that made by Mr. Yates was $13,500, which was offered by a non-resident of the city.

Charles D. Bennett yesterday sold the property at 226 South Nevada avenue to Henry F. Cline for approximately $3,000. Mr. Cline is a foreman at the Hassell Iron Works and will reside in the property.

Henry Ball Willis reports sales as follows: From Thomas Scattergood to A. J. Jeter, formerly of Camden Point, Mo., six-room house with bath, Grant avenue, West Colorado Springs, lot 50 by 160 feet, approximate price, $1,200; from Helen L. Ballou to G. C. Hewett, lot 50 by 100 feet in 1600 block on the east side of Wood avenue, approximate consideration, $1,600; from E. A. Coburn to Helen L. Ballou, lot 4, block 23, Broadmoor, approximate consideration, $1,500.

The Hastings-Allen Realty and Building company has sold the north forty feet of lot 2, block 2, Hastings sixth addition, to A. E. Fehlerson for $520, and a house and lot in the 1500 block on North Royer to Hattie M. Harris for $2,400.

TO INCREASE NUMBER OF ITS DIRECTORATE

The meeting of the Larimer Light and Power company, which was to be held yesterday afternoon, was postponed until this afternoon, when the stockholders will meet in the offices of the Colorado Title and Trust company. The chief business to be transacted is the increasing of the number of directors from seven to nine. It is understood that Dr. McHugh and Mr. Edwards, both of Fort Collins, will be the new directors.

The Larimer Light and Power company owns the lighting plant of Ft. Collins but is largely owned by Colorado Springs capitalists. The adding of the two Fort Collins men to the directorate will still leave the control in this city; five out of the nine directors being of this city. Franklin E. Brooks is president of the company and Irving W. Bonbright is secretary.

CITY HALL NOTES

Chief of Police Alex Adams is investigating reports of the disappearance of various articles of clothing from the cloak room of the High school. Hats and caps have repeatedly been taken, and in some cases other articles have been appropriated.

Under instructions from Rocky Ford, Chief Adams has released Frank N. Hohler from custody, the action against him having been dismissed. Hohler was arrested upon a charge of false pretenses and gave bond for his appearance. He now threatens to bring suit for damages against the Rocky Ford plaintiff.

Roosevelt and Uncle Remus

President Roosevelt, while at Atlanta, Georgia, took occasion to say a good deal about Uncle Remus and his creator, Joel Chandler Harris. Among other things he said:

"I am very fond of Uncle Remus. Presidents may come and Presidents may go, but Uncle Remus stays put. Georgia has done a great many things for the Union, but she has never done more than when she gave Mr. Joel Chandler Harris to American literature."

The new Uncle Remus book

Bargain of All Bargains
Cost $25,000 Price $14,500

We bought under the hammer Friday afternoon the elegant home at 1823 North Nevada for $14,000. This place cost $22,500 to build and put in the lawn in 1904, and is on a lot that is worth $2,500. Positively the finest home in that part of the city.

This fine residence consists of about 16 rooms, thoroughly finished in every respect. Built in the most modern way possible by a builder of years of experience. The rooms are large and sunny, the inside finish is the best. Every stick of material that was put into this residence was inspected. Nothing in the frame work smaller than 2x6 timber. The lot is 50x190; cement walks, beautiful lawn, etc., in fact, a person must go through this property to appreciate its beauty. If taken quick we will sell for the above price, being a small advance. Will take one-fourth down, balance can run at 6 per cent. This property is free of incumbrance and perfect title. Will consider a smaller property as part payment. This is beyond a doubt the biggest bargain ever offered in the city. Don't fail to see us at once for we are going to sell this beautiful home to someone in a very few days. This property is bringing $100.00 per month rent.

VILLAGES SHOULD SPEAK UP.

It would be a good idea for every city, town, village and hamlet along the line of any railroad to put up a sign or two somewhere in proximity to the railroad station setting forth the name of the town and whatever claim it has for historic, residential and industrial interest. Travelers often wonder, when a train comes to a stop, what the town is that spreads out before them and wherein lies its excuse for being. True, the railroads are doing a great deal to report and advertise the attractions, scenic and commercial, of most of the more important places, but it wouldn't be an altogether bad idea for the towns to do a little something themselves, if only to set up a bulletin of facts for the enlightenment of the passing traveler.—Four Track News.

THE RISE OF WITTE.

RUSSIA is a country in which individuals count for little. Autocratic institutions have so restricted initiative and freedom of action that one man, however great his abilities may be is a very insignificant being. The man who happens to be Czar may be a fool or a knave, and he is usually a mere figurehead, but nevertheless he is Czar and Autocrat, and the most capable statesmen who serve him shine only by the light of his reflected glory. In Muscovite statesmanship the individual is subordinated to the state; he has nothing like the opportunities for independent action and personal advancement that the statesmen of other countries enjoy, for he is ever and always a mere serving man to his imperial master.

This condition has always prevailed under the Russian autocracy, but the beginning of a new regime is likely to mark its end. Hereafter Russian statesmen will be actual factors in moulding the destinies of the Empire, and the Czar and Grand Dukes will occupy more nearly the positions of the royal families of other monarchies. The first man to benefit by this new order is Count Witte, and it may truthfully be said that the change is largely of his own making. More than any other man he is responsible for the transition from autocracy to limited monarchy. The change has been of slow growth and a number of factors have entered into it over which he has had no control, and some of which he has opposed, but he is the one statesman in Russia who had the foresight to realize that liberalism was sure to triumph in time, and that the sooner the forces in control recognized this fact and made the inevitable concessions the better it would be for them.

Less than a year ago Witte was under a cloud. His opposition to the Far Eastern policy of the men who were striving to bring on war with Japan had inspired the hatred and contempt of the reactionary party, and this was further intensified by his outspoken opposition to the repressive measures used against the Jews and the agitators for reform. He had been tucked away in an obscure position with no influence and no opportunity for achievement. But he is a strong man in a country where strong men are few but badly needed, and when the time came to settle the war with Japan the Czar was forced to turn to him as the only man capable of fulfilling the mission.

He performed the task well, and was therefore snubbed by jealous rivals when he returned to St. Petersburg. But Witte had demonstrated the fact that he was indispensable to his imperial master, and so it comes that he is now called to the highest post in the Empire to solve the greatest problem that ever confronted a Russian statesman. His career has been as wonderful as any romance, but it is still far from being finished, and before the end comes there will doubtless be added new chapters as marvelous as any yet written.

A CONSTITUTION FOR CHINA?

THE massacre of five American missionaries in China about the time of the arrival in this country of a Chinese commission appointed by the Empress Dowager to examine into systems of constitutional government, brings the light and the darkness of the Chinese Empire into juxtaposition, and exemplifies the ignorance on the one hand and the dawn of better things on the other. At the time of the Boxer uprising a few years ago there seemed to be little hope for the yellow men, but the fact that a constitution for the Empire appears to be a not remote probability is evidence that the Chinese, profiting by the experience of their neighbors, the Japanese, are in a fair way to begin the adoption of Western ideas so that they may some day take their place in the political and business world with other great nations.

China has already inspired a greater degree of respect in this country by displaying a laudable determination to bring the murderers of the American missionaries to justice. Unless it fails to do its duty, no just blame can be attached to the central government, and the United States will look on with a great degree of interest to see whether the wrongs will be avenged by those to whom the duty belongs. That there should be indignation in this country at the recent outrage is not unnatural. But nothing is to be gained by the display of a spirit of vindictiveness, and it is the wise policy to leave the matter for the present in the hands of the Chinese government.

A certain feeling of retaliation doubtless was behind the slaughter of the American missionaries, for it is well known that throughout China a spirit of resentment is harbored at the indignities to which many Chinese have been subjected in gaining an entrance into this country because of the stringency of the exclusion laws. But the whole people cannot be blamed for the sins of a few of the ignorant classes.

Contrasted with the overthrow of absolutism and the causes of its downfall in Russia, the preliminary steps now being taken to give the Chinese Empire a constitution stand out in a highly favorable light. If it is granted it will be the outcome of a growing enlightenment and not the result of anarchy and socialism born of oppression and misery.

THE IMMIGRATION QUESTION.

IF THE next Congress has any time to spare from its discussions of rate regulation, tariff revision, and the other pressing questions which now bid fair to occupy nearly all of its attention, it certainly ought to take up the subject of foreign immigration. This matter has been agitated so thoroughly in the last year that the public is quite familiar with the situation, and there is scarcely likely to be reasonable objection from any quarter to the enactment of more rigid laws governing the admission of aliens.

During the year ended June 30, last, about 1,100,000 immigrants landed on American soil, as against 812,870 in 1903-4, and 857,046 in 1902-3. The objection is not to the numbers, for this country is big enough to provide elbow room for our present population and all the good foreigners who could come at this rate for the next century. Nor is there danger of the labor market being oversupplied, for there is a steadily growing demand for men to do the rough work for which the aliens seem to be best fitted. If the immigrants could be properly distributed in the West, and more especially the South, there is work enough to provide for each of them. But they are not distributed, and this constitutes one of the most serious objections to their admission.

Sixty-four per cent of the whole number of immigrants who arrived during the fiscal year 1903-4 stayed in New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Massachusetts, settling in the densely populated parts of the large cities where they displace other labor and greatly complicate the industrial problem. New York received more than 250,000 of these immigrants, Pennsylvania, 146,478; New Jersey, 41,420. Such congestion of an alien, illiterate, and in many cases diseased and criminal population produces various evils which make the presence of such people wholly objectionable.

It is a serious question whether the country is capable of assimilating foreigners of this character at the rate of a million a year. If they were Scandinavians, Irish or Germans—the races which contributed the bulk of our immigration a generation ago—the problem would be easy, for as a rule these peoples are easily Americanized and become good citizens. But there is a constantly increasing proportion of Slavs, Austro-Hungarians and Italians, people who are almost paupers, unable to read or write their own languages, and among whom the percentage of crime and insanity is startling. These are the people that Congress must find means to exclude. America welcomes all the honest, intelligent foreigners it can get, but it has no place for the other kinds. A new immigration law which would hold the steamship companies to a stricter account, compel more careful physical examination of applicants, and place the business of naturalization in the care of the Federal courts would without doubt go far toward relieving the present situation.

Senator Clark, of Montana, declares that he is opposed to the use of money in politics. Just the same, if he wants another term in the Senate he will probably have to pay the current market prices for each legislator. High political ideals are at a discount in Montana, but in Senatorial election times votes are at a premium.

The directors of the New York Life, after carefully investigating the company, announce that it is all right and that Mr. McCall is likewise all right. Now who will be so ungentlemanly as to say that there is anything wrong with either the New York Life or Mr. McCall?

One of the Russian Grand Dukes is said to be heartily in sympathy with Witte's reform program. Wonders never cease. The next thing we may expect to hear is that His Dukelets has gone into politics as the friend of the people, a sort of Russian W. J. Bryan.

After deliberating over it for four years the New York Evening Post has decided that Mr. Roosevelt is a safe and sane man for the Presidency. As usual, the Evening Post is about three and a half years behind the rest of the country.

THE GLOCKNER SANITARIUM.

To the Editor of the Gazette:

Having had an intimate acquaintance with the work of the Glockner Sanitarium during the last five years, I beg to indorse very heartily the letter of Prof. J. H. Kerr in Thursday's Gazette. The Glockner is essentially nonsectarian in all practical matters. The love of God and man supplying the impetus usually imparted by dollars and cents in paying institutions. But having no endowment either directly or indirectly, charity work to any great extent becomes incompatible with the honest payment of obligations. Those who have been connected with similar undertakings know how largely the question of paid service enters into all plans for the financial success of a society such as this. At the Glockner there are 14 sisters, 12 nurses in training, and about 16 servants or help. The sisters are of course entirely unpaid, the nurses have a small stipend while in training. The help are, in part, inexpensive, so that this large establishment, in complete running order, can be maintained and meets its obligations upon a known basis. The sister superior is most anxious to do more for the poor man than is at present possible. If the business organizations of the city would consider the question, a sum of money to be used in furtherance of this object might easily be raised; and for the wise use of such a fund the superior would hold herself accountable to an officer appointed by such organizations, who would be at liberty to investigate the distribution of the charity.

Dismemberment of Austro-Hungarian Empire a Certainty.

PRESENT TROUBLES ONLY A PRELUDE TO THE GREAT CLIMAX WHEN THE COUNTRY WILL BE PARTITIONED AS WAS POLAND.

THE political volcano in Hungary, which has been rumbling spasmodically since 1848, is apparently on the verge of an eruption that may involve Europe, the outcome of which it is difficult to foresee.

The events of the past two weeks in Budapest and Vienna indicate a condition of seething unrest unparalleled in Hungary since the days when the fiery eloquence of Louis Kossuth aroused his countrymen to a struggle which barely missed the disruption of the Austro-Hungarian empire. It is a striking feature of the situation that the Francis Joseph of Hapsburg, whom a Kossuth almost succeeded in hurling from his throne, is once more in a life and death conflict with a Kossuth—the son of the grand old man of Hungary who died an exile in Italy, with a sentence of death hanging over his head. Once more, as in 1848, it is the house of Hapsburg against the house of Kossuth, the reactionary German against the equally reactionary Magyar. The outcome of the extraordinary duel is being watched with absorbing interest in all the chancelleries of Europe as the prelude to a war that can have but one outcome—the dismemberment of the empire.

The revolution into which Hungary is drifting, blinded by passion and fired by a consuming sense of nationalism, bids fair to make immediate issues of international problems which the chancellors have exerted every diplomatic effort to keep beneath the surface of things. Germany, in the first place, could not fail to regard an uprising against the house of Hapsburg as an event of immediate interest in Berlin. The German agitation in Hungary is sufficiently well developed to indicate unmistakably the determination of the kaiser to encourage every movement in Austria which promises to contribute to the accomplishment of his desires for the annexation of the Austrian Germans to his empire. Russia, on the other hand, has long kept a jealous eye upon the attempts of the Magyars to denationalize the Slavic element in what is administratively known as Hungary. On the Transylvanian border of Hungary is the kingdom of Roumania, keeping equally close tab on the Hungarian campaign for the Magyarization of 4,000,000 Roumanians in Transylvania. With equal eagerness Italy is watching developments with a view to the ultimate destinies of what Italian statesmen regard as the Italian element on the Austrian littoral of the Adriatic. Furthermore, the house of Savoy and the Italian people have not forgotten the war for the unification of Italy. Nor have they forgotten the reign of terror which Austria inaugurated in Italy in a futile attempt to stamp out the national movement.

It will thus be seen that half of Europe is immediately interested in the Austro-Hungarian rupture as an ethnical issue, apart from its inevitable bearing upon the balance of power on the continent. The first firing of a gun upon the flag of Hapsburg will be the signal for a general armament on a vast scale from Sicily to Nova Zembla.

Emperor at Kossuth's Mercy.

Facing this situation, which might well tax the statesmanship, energy and courage of a combative monarch of the highest intelligence, is a feeble though resentful old man, bowed down with years and with the humiliations and chagrin of half a century of unparalleled disaster, personal and political. Francis Joseph, whose decree of death is still hanging over the dead Kossuth, is practically at the mercy of the living Kossuth. Behind Kossuth is the bulk of the Hungarian nation, aroused to anger and smarting with resentment under the rigid immobility of an emperor-king, in whose estimation the maintenance of the forms of German predominance in the empire is the highest and most essential political doctrine.

To the casual observer, the Austro-Hungarian crisis hinges upon a trivial thing—upon the question whether German or Hungarian shall be the language of command in the Hungarian contingent of the dual army. The Hungarians have insisted that Hungarian troops must receive the order of the day in Magyar. In support of this apparently academic contention they have completely tied up the affairs of the dual monarch.

When the emperor-king, two years ago, announced his conclusion that the imperial government could not permit the use of Hungarian in issuing orders to Hungarian troops, a tremor of indignation ran through Hungary. The Nationalists, with Francis Kossuth at their head, leaped to the issue with an energy that smacked of the days of 1848. Notice was served upon the reigning Hapsburg that Hungary was determined to govern itself. The Hapsburg gazed upon the movement in sullen wrath.

Then the Kossuthists electrified the country by an appeal to Hungarian patriotism. All the groups of the opposition made common cause. At the last election the Moderates were swept out of office for the first time since the fall of Kossuth, by an overwhelming majority. Then an extraordinary situation confronted the emperor-king. The opposition in the diet, which was also the majority, formally designated Kossuth as its collective leader. The name of Kossuth, an anathema to the Hapsburg ear, became the motto of the dominant party in the national parliament. Could a Hapsburg head be bowed before the son of the man whose hand had almost wrested the crown of St. Stephen from its present wearer?

Hungarian Constitution Crushed.

Francis Joseph answered the question by setting foot upon the Hun- [illegible] minority to form a cabinet. The Independents met the announcement [illegible] king kept to his course. After a crisis of three months during which Hungary had no legal government, Baron Fejervary, a leader of the minority, formed a cabinet. The Independents replied to the king's tactics by a refusal to vote credits with which to run the government. By the king's orders the cabinet provided for the necessary expenditures, and was promptly confronted by the majority with proceedings for impeachment.

The emergency suggested a bold and dangerous plan to the Fejervary ministry. It conceived the scheme of granting universal suffrage in Hungary. This project introduced new combustible material in the seething mass. The king, who is the type of the vanishing reactionary in European politics, declined to evoke the genii from the jar. He realized at once that the granting of universal suffrage in Hungary would produce a tumult of conflicting demands in other parts of the empire which would spell the mene mene tekel upharsin of Hapsburg domination. The royal and imperial "No" issued in response to Fejervary's demand.

On the other hand, the Hungarians have even more essential reasons to dread a system of universal suffrage. Magyar domination in Hungary is based not upon the numerical strength of the Magyar race in the kingdom, but upon restriction of the suffrage. Property qualifications and gerrymandering of voting districts have resulted in the distribution of the 980,000 votes in the kingdom in such a way that 550,000 votes are credited to the Magyars. When it is remembered that out of a total population of 19,000,000 in Hungary only 7,000,000 are Magyars, and unwillingness of the Hungarian majority to accept universal suffrage can be readily understood. The statesmen at Budapest understood distinctly that an equitable distribution of the right of franchise would easily give the dominant place to the Slav voters—the Croatian, the Slovak, the Slovene and the Serb. A Slavic coalition could easily wrest the power from the Magyars. The Slav peril, combined with the voting possibilities of the 4,000,000 Roumanians in Transylvania, presents possibilities before which the patriots at Budapest shudder in dismay. Even Kossuth, who is making a frenzied appeal to world sympathy as a champion of national rights in Hungary, had rather plunge the Austro-Hungarian empire into the maelstrom of war than yield to the Slavic demand for the right of a just representation at the polls.

Many Restless Peoples.

The Slavs, for their part, are awaiting with eagerness the moment when the Magyar sword shall be unsheathed. The Croatians remember their ban Jellatchitch, whom the blandishments of Louis Kossuth failed to reach, and who, at the head of the Croatian army, fought for the emperor in 1848. Croatians, Slavs, Slovenes and Serbs alike are smarting under the goad of Hungarian domination. Combined they would furnish an element of imminent danger to Hungarian aspirations. In the event of a war between Austria and Hungary the Austrian emperor would find the Slavs under his banners. That is why the Independence party opposes so bitterly Fejervary's project for the introduction of universal suffrage in Hungary.

Confronted with the disapproval of his king and the bitter protests of the majority of his countrymen, the Fejervary cabinet, itself an unconstitutional body, resigned less than a fortnight ago. Once more the head of the house of Hapsburg found himself completely at the mercy of the house of Kossuth.

Then came an incident which fanned Hungarian anger into a blaze. After a vain attempt to interpose Chancellor Goluchowski, himself a Pole, between the Hungarians and the throne, the emperor, less than ten days ago, consented to receive the delegation from the majority in the Hungarian diet with Kossuth at their head—always the inevitable Kossuth upon whose father's head the decree of death had been placed by the reigning Hapsburg.

The King Unyielding.

In the course of an angry interview the leaders of the Independence party were informed by the king that the royal purpose had sustained no change—the command in the army must remain. The departure of the Hungarians from the palace in Vienna after a half hour's stormy interview was the result of a curt dismissal. The Kossuth had spoken. So had the Hapsburg.

Throughout Hungary the unyielding attitude of the king aroused a roar of angry protest. The name of Kossuth more than ever became the motto of Hungarian national existence. The question of the language of command in the army became more than ever the immediate and dominant issue of the struggle. The flame of discontent is spreading in every direction from the storm center at Budapest. The old man in the palace in Vienna is more determined than ever that the word of a Hapsburg shall be law. Meanwhile it is apparent that Europe is preparing for a repetition of the struggle of '48.

In such an event the Austrian empire would find itself without a single sentiment of loyalty or cohesion. The cry of "Los von Rom" in German Austria has sufficiently indicated the trend toward annexation to Protestant Germany to render futile any hopes of unanimous and patriotic support of the empire by its German subjects. The revival of national sentiment in Warsaw furnishes a sufficient indication of the unwillingness of the Poles to support the house of Hapsburg. The rise of the young czech movement in Bohemia is a striking proof of Bohemian disaffection.

The conflicting races of the empire are not held together even by the artificial bond of a common military glory. An empire which has been successively and disastrously beaten by Prussia and Italy, and saved from annihilation by the Hungarians only through the intervention of Russia, is ill calculated to rally a united army to its standards. The sullen Hapsburg, twice afflicted, once by the mysterious tragedy of the Crown Prince Rudolph and again by the death of the Empress Elizabeth at the hand of an assassin, sits in angry silence upon a tottering throne—the most pitiable man in all Europe—while the world is holding its breath in expectation of the inevitable catastrophe.—New York Press.

DANGEROUS RAILROAD TRAVEL

A newspaper writer, meeting Lord Brassey at Red Bank, N. J., asked the distinguished foreigner if he feared to travel on American railroads.

"Oh, no," Lord Brassey answered, "your American railroads kill a good many people in the year's course, but we must remember that they carry a good many people a good many miles. In proportion, probably they do no more damage than the railroads of France or of Scotland.

"The famous Doctor Norman Macleod was once about to set off on a long railroad journey through Scotland. Just as the train was pulling out the clergyman's servant put his head in through the window and said:

"'Ha'e ye ta'en an insurance ticket?'

"'I have,' said the doctor.

"'Then,' said the servant, 'write yer name on it and gi'e it to me. They ha'e an awfu' bad habit o' robbin' the corpses on this line.'"—New York Tribune.

THEODORE CALLED.

That was a fine old lady of the old school down in the little country town of Georgia who stood on the rights of age and womanhood and said that she was not accustomed to go about and call on men, and that if Theodore wished to see her "Theodore must call." And Theodore was manly and big enough to call and pay homage to the woman who had been the bridesmaid of his mother. This is a capital story—we hope it is true—and it is fit to rank as one of the most creditable acts of President Roosevelt's career. Even Vardaman will be compelled to admit that he could not have been a more chivalrous man in Roosevelt's place.—Chicago Evening Post.

"YOU'LL HAVE TO BE IDENTIFIED"

FAMILIAR PHRASE WILL NOW BE WORKED OVERTIME AT POSTOFFICE MONEY ORDER WINDOW.

Whether they like it or no, it is back to the metal rule method of five years ago for the postoffice money order clerks. While none of them court trouble with the department and therefore all are silent, it is a fact that the change is little to their liking.

Since the brass rule for tearing the order at the designated amount was laid aside five years ago and the convenient and business-like draft blanks came into service the money order clerk of the Colorado Springs postoffice has sold 219,000 orders. He has a supply of the draft-like blanks which will last him until the first of next year, and will not receive a shipment of the old blanks until the present supply is exhausted.

The new order goes into general effect, however, Nov. 15, and the chief difference it will make to the payee is that under the new rules no laxity of the rule of identification is possible, and, if unknown to the postoffice force the payee must take some one who can personally identify him if he wishes to get an order cashed.

Heretofore the name of the remitter and address of the payee have been written only on the advice. This information in the future will be written on the face of the order and will not afford the postmaster any protection. It will therefore be necessary to have positive identification in the case of every order cashed. The new order will be somewhat wider than the old.

Dangers of a Cold.

It is agreed by all the best and most progressive physicians that at this season of the year one of the most unfailing preventives against contagious diseases such as diphtheria, scarlet fever and even consumption, is to avoid colds, or, having contracted them, to combat them assiduously and intelligently. Colds prepare the system for the reception and development of the germs of these diseases. The best treatment for a cold is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure and is equally valuable for children and adults. It has become famous for its cures of this disease and can always be depended upon. For sale by all druggists.

THE MECHANICAL MAN AT THE BIRD PIANO CO., 11 NORTH TEJON STREET.

Saturday being the last day's performance of the mechanical man, if any person thinks him human the management of the mechanical man will offer a $25 mandolin, $25 violin, $25 guitar, $12 banjo and a small piano if they succeed in making him smile during his performance.

The hours of performance will be from 11 to 1 o'clock, 3 to 5, and 7:30 to 9:30 in the evening.

The mechanical man will do new stunts showing 20th century improvements in mechanism.

EXPERT OIL DRILLER HERE FROM FLORENCE

J. J. Hessick, expert oil driller, arrived here yesterday from Florence, where he went to arrange the shipment of the block and tackle necessary for the further boring of the Colorado Springs Oil company's well on account of the formation of rotten shale encountered. Mr. Hessick says that they have an abundance of water for two shifts, which they will [illegible] operate. He will be in charge of the night shift.

"Indications are so good that I wouldn't be surprised if we struck oil in a week," Mr. Hessick said. "There would be nothing out of the common experience in oil fields in striking oil under 1,000 feet. We could do so, I think, without going through some of the formations which experts have predicted we would encounter before we struck a gusher. I do not agree with many who think that the Falcon field is similar to that of Florence, and that the oil here is only in crevices. I think, instead, that we will strike an oil sand which will yield a steady flow."

All kinds of gloves, men or boys, at [illegible].

TAXATION IS IN DISPUTE

COUNTY ASSESSOR STRACHAN ASKS CITY ADMINISTRATION TO SOLVE KNOTTY PROBLEM.

County Assessor Alex Strachan has presented to the municipal authorities a question of considerable importance, not only on account of the amount of money involved, but because it also questions the legality of many improvements which the city has made in the various additions that have from time to time been added to the city.

Mayor Hall is now wrestling with the question as to whether an addition becomes a portion of the city merely by the acceptance of the plat by vote of the city council, or whether a special ordinance is required to be passed for each addition accepted.

The Out West addition, situated north of West Colorado Springs, was platted and the plat accepted by the city council. The owner now desires to avoid city taxes by having the property assessed by acreage, and sets up the claim that it has never been legally admitted as part of the city.

McClure's addition in the southeast part of the city presents a slightly different question. The plat was accepted by the council, but the boundary lines appear to pass through the addition, and the assessor desires to know whether the entire tract should be assessed as within the city limits or outside.

The amount of taxes involved in the solution of the problem is estimated at $50,000.

PLAN TO GIVE INDOOR FAIR

PYTHIAN CIRCLES AGOG WITH MANY EVENTS FOR THE ENTERTAINMENT OF THE PUBLIC.

Colorado Springs Knights of Pythias are doing things these days. A ten-day indoor fair, a public installation, a trip to New Orleans, the organization of a band and a grand ball are among the many things which local K. P.'s are planning.

The indoor fair will be given by H. C. Casner company No. 2, U. R. K. P., during the latter part of December. It will last ten days and will probably be held in Temple theater. The Knights of Pythias band, which is now being organized, will play every evening and numerous other attractions will be imported from the east. A number of side shows, ranging from the bearded lady to oriental dancers, will be among the "extras." The feature night of the fair will be devoted to a mock trial in which Colorado Springs attorneys who belong to the order will take part. The money raised at the fair will be devoted to the company's trip to New Orleans. Captain Alex Reibscheid has appointed the following committee of arrangements to take charge of the fair: R. C. Hall, chairman; Alderman Carl Albin, Chas. M. Argust, H. Collier and "Bill" Nye.

Syracuse lodge No. 111, K. P., will hold a public installation on the evening of Thursday, January 4. Grand Chancellor O. R. Bennett of this city will pay his official visit to the lodge at this time and Vice Chancellor William Warner of Denver, grand keeper of seals; W. S. O'Brien of Denver, and Grand Master of the Exchequer M. Z. Farwell of La Junta, will also be present. Dr. W. A. Campbell, a trustee of the grand lodge, will preside.

H. C. Casner company has decided to go to New Orleans next August to compete in the supreme lodge drill. The team comprises 29 officers and men, and will be commanded by Captain Reibscheid. Although the finest K. P. drill teams of America will compete, the members of the local company are confident of bringing home one of the big prizes.

The second of the series of winter dances being given by H. C. Casner company will be held at the Alamo hotel Wednesday night. These dances are becoming popular with local K. P.'s and their friends and a large crowd is assured for next week's ball.

TAXPAYERS SIGN PETITION AGAINST ORDINANCE PROPOSED BY REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE.

When the ordinance drawn by the Real Estate exchange and providing for the parking of the streets and the laying of sidewalks throughout the city is presented to the city council for consideration at the next regular meeting there will be a petition presented against the plan. The petition that has been in circulation reads as follows:

"We, the undersigned property holders and taxpayers of Colorado Springs respectfully protest against the present movement to lay cement sidewalks and pave our streets. We believe the subject requires more careful consideration than it has yet been given and that it is unwise to add to our present high rate of taxation this additional burden."

The petition is signed by W. C. Frost, T. S. Brigham, H. A. Watson, J. M. Ellison, B. G. Robbins, William Lennox, E. J. Eaton, A. S. Holbrook, W. H. Reed and about 80 other taxpayers. In order that both sides of the question may be thoroughly considered it is probable that the city council will set aside some evening for this matter alone, and that the advocates and opponents of the proposed measure will be requested to present their arguments.

GRAVE CHARGES MADE BY WIFE

FANNIE ARNOLD, IN DIVORCE SUIT, SAYS HER HUSBAND MADE THREATS AGAINST HER LIFE.

Married in this city last January, Fannie Arnold now petitions the county court for a decree of divorce upon the grounds of cruelty on the part of Calvin Arnold, $10 per week temporary alimony, $50 attorney fees, and an injunction to restrain the defendant from disposing of a horse, wagon and harness in the possession of the defendant but which it is alleged was purchased with money furnished by the plaintiff. The restraining order was granted by Judge Robert Kerr, prohibiting the defendant from selling or disposing of the property. Plaintiff charges the defendant with abusing her, spending his money and showering attention upon other women, and with threatening to kill her and burn her property.

Two decrees of divorce were granted by a jury in the county court yesterday upon the grounds of non-support. Phoebe J. Hornback, who was married to Ross W. Hornback in Franklin county, Mo., on March 16, 1881, was awarded a verdict. Sena A. Adams was also made happy and granted the custody of an 11-year-old son. Mrs. Adams was married to Joseph Adams at Holton, Kan., on November 27, 1891.

On motion of counsel for the plaintiff the divorce action of Roberta M. Davis vs. Homer F. Davis was dismissed in the county court yesterday.

The damage suit of Sara Jean Taylor against the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad company has been transferred from the district court of this county to the United States court at Denver. Plaintiff seeks to recover $20,000 for injuries alleged to have been sustained in an accident near Limon.

PHYSICIAN HAD NARROW ESCAPE

DR. SOLLY'S ASSOCIATES PLAY JOKE ON HIS BIRTHDAY—GIVE A HANDSOME LOVING CUP.

Learning that yesterday was his sixtieth birthday anniversary, the associates of Dr. S. Edwin Solly decided that, according to the theory of Prof. Osler, his case demanded their professional attention. Armed with a huge bottle of chloroform, they solemnly entered his room and told him that the hour for his Oslerization had arrived. They frankly admitted that he seemed quite active for a man who according to a scientific dictum, has passed the day of his usefulness to society, and they admitted that they hated to do it. Thereupon one of their number took from his medical case a suspicious package and, stepping aggressively toward Dr. Solly, placed the parcel in his hands. The bundle contained a beautiful silver loving cup, handsomely engraved and bearing the appropriate inscription of "the youngest of us all."

HIGH PRIEST TO VISIT ROYAL ARCH MASONS

Members of the Royal Arch Masons are looking forward to the visit of Tyler D. Heiskel of Ft. Morgan, Colo., to this city next Monday. Mr. Heiskel is the high priest of the grand chapter, and aside from the pleasure of visiting the local chapter, one of the objects of the visit will be to install John Williams of this city in the office of grand lecturer. Mr. Williams was obliged to return home during the recent session of the grand chapter in Denver and was not installed when the other grand officers were inducted into office. Tejon lodge, No. 104, A. F. and A. M., has given the lodge room to the chapter for this occasion and will hold its regular session on the following evening.

CARACAS LIKELY TO BE SELECTED FOR CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The diplomatic representatives of the South American republics to this country will decide on December 7 which country will be designated as the meeting place of the next Pan-American congress, which is to assemble in 1907, according to the action taken at the last congress in Mexico City in 1902.

Although no country has been pointed out so far for the honor of entertaining the delegates of the American republics, it is very likely that Venezuela will be chosen and that Caracas will be the convention city. The Venezuelan government has informed its charge d'affaires in this city, Senor [illegible], that in case the choice should fall upon Caracas, the Venezuelan government will be highly honored and will do whatever it can to bring forth the greatest results of the meeting of the representatives of its sister republics. If Caracas should be ultimately chosen this fact might be taken as partaking an honor to the memory of Simon Bolivar, the liberator of a score of South American republics, who from there started the revolution against Spain which was to deliver the whole South American continent from the Spanish supremacy.

OFFICERS PROTECT STATUE OF SATAN

DETROIT, Nov. 10.—Two Detroit policemen last night assumed the unique duty of taking up their station as guards at the site of a monument to Satan. The monument is thirteen feet in height from foundation to crown, a horned figure purporting to be Satan being shown in a stooping position behind a pulpit. The grotesque affair created a sensation when unveiled in the front yard of Herman Monz, a contracting stone mason, at 208 Stanton avenue, and last night a mob of boys gathered around it and began a bombardment of stones that threatened its destruction, the two policemen finally dispersing the crowd and standing guard to prevent further attacks.

Explaining his action in erecting the monument, Mr. Mons said that he did not believe a word of the Bible but that Old Nick told the truth.

"He is my friend," declared the old man, pointing up at the image. "He spoke the first and last truth."

Around the neck of the statue when it was unveiled was a ribbon of United States flags.

Clergymen and city officials have been interviewed regarding the extraordinary action of Mr. Monz, but no conclusion has been reached as to whether his monument can or should be made the object of official action to secure its removal.

BROTHER OF ANDREWS THINKS HIM INNOCENT.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 10.—Alvin E. Andrews, brother of Milton F. Andrews, who killed himself and his woman companion in California recently when about to be arrested for the murder of Bessie Bouton at Colorado Springs, says that he believes his brother innocent of that murder as well as others charged to him. Alvin Andrews disappeared mysteriously from his home several months ago, and after the police had [illegible] to find him returned and said he had been with his brother. He now says that Nulda was the woman who came here at that time and told him of his brother's trouble and of his whereabouts. He refuses to say where he met his brother, but said that Milton not only denied killing Bessie Bouton, but he said he did not know who did kill her, and there was no one that he suspected.

Mrs. Jennie Andrews of Springfield, the wife of the dead man, will try to get control of the property her husband left.

PROMINENT ATTORNEY OF CHICAGO DIES SUDDENLY.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Luther H. Dearborn, a prominent attorney, was found dying at the foot of the steps leading to his front door last night. It is not known whether he was assaulted by robbers or was attacked suddenly by some disease. He died a few minutes after being found. Mr. Dearborn was a member of the Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth general assemblies, and belonged to numerous clubs and societies.

CARNEGIE SAYS AMERICANS ARE TOO GOOD NATURED

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Andrew Carnegie, upon disembarking today from the steamer Baltic on which he arrived here last night, talked on American politics. He spent the summer at his castle in Scotland.

After expressing himself in favor of honest elections and declaring that municipal ownership was bound to come some day, Mr. Carnegie said:

"The insurance scandals have made a profound impression throughout Europe. [illegible] There are so many men in America who are so good natured that they lend their names to financial institutions and assume duties which they have not time to perform. The respectable names are used as decoy ducks by the real managers of the institutions over which they have no control. What we need to control such evils is men in office who are not money grabbers, who are retired from business and who will conduct public offices as they would their own business.

"The impression is caused by the fact that business men will not protect their names as they protect their debtors.

"It has to this extent caused wonder that men of finance have allowed their names to be used as a blind. I have been asked time and again to become a director of some of the insurance companies but I replied that if the institution is a good one I will trust my dollars with it, but not my name. That is sacred."

LODGE SAYS CORPORATE CONTROL IS ESSENTIAL

BROOKLINE, Mass., Nov. 10.—The observance of the 200th anniversary of the incorporation of Brookline, which has long held the name of being the wealthiest town in the world, was opened today and will continue through Monday.

Senator Lodge, in the course of his address, said:

"The belief that great combinations of capital should not and cannot be allowed to operate unchecked and unwatched is not only natural, but sound and right. But there is a wide distinction between government supervision and regulation of these enormous agencies for the conduct of business and government ownership and operation of such agencies. The one is a necessity in the public interest developed by modern conditions, the other is a revolution in our entire theory and practice of government. Government ownership of the railroads of this country, to take but a single instance, would mean in its fulfillment, the destruction of the institutions we have known and loved and under which our liberties have been won and preserved. We should have an obligarchy composed of a few office holders, a despot at their head and all below on one sordid level."

GIRL JUMPS TO HER DEATH FROM BUILDING.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—In view of hundreds of shoppers in State street, Miss Fannie Baines, of Detroit, Michigan, jumped from a fifth story window of one of the principal department stores, today.

She was instantly killed. Several persons barely escaped being struck by Miss Baines' body. Miss Baines, on first entering the store, walked to the lace department and examined some goods. She then proceeded toward the [illegible] department, but stopped at a settee, close to a window. Suddenly she climbed to the ledge, opened the window and, with a loud scream, threw herself toward the pavement.

Illness is said to have caused the act.

WELL KNOWN CHARACTER OF TOPEKA MURDERED.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 10.—John Dahlgren, a well known character of the slum district, was found dead in the furnace room of an office block at an early hour this morning.

It was evidently a case of murder as the victim's head was crushed into a pulp. Rats had also eaten the ends of his fingers off.

The colored janitor, who reported the finding of the body at daylight, and Charles Lindenschmidt, who was seen with Dahlgren late last night, both in a jovial mood, are under arrest. The victim was an inoffensive character, never with money, and the cause of the crime is a puzzle.

SECRETARY SHAW IS AGAIN AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Secretary Shaw returned from New York today. He said that he saw nothing in the political situation in the New York money market to warrant any action by the treasury department.

RESCUE LEAGUE WILL HOLD SPECIAL SERVICE

The Rocky Mountain Rescue and Protective league will hold special services at the People's mission Sunday at 3 p. m. The league has secured a suitable "home" at Pueblo for the prosecution of its work, which officers expect to open in a few days.

It is the plan of the officers to make an open door of hope for any fallen woman or girl. There will be some industrial features connected with the work and the [illegible] aim will be that of self-[illegible] in doing practical lines.

The Pueblo home will be known as Hope cottage.

TO OUST FEHRINGER BY LEGAL PROCESS

With reference to the report that Druggist Otto Fehringer had placed guards in the South End pharmacy to prevent any attempt to oust him from possession, Judge A. T. Gunnell, speaking as the representative of Mrs. L. P. Ady, the owner of the property, last evening said: "I know nothing about Mr. Fehringer placing guards in the building, and care less, for the next step that we take to oust him will be through the courts. The complaint will be filed just as soon as we can prepare it, probably within the next few days."

SUES FOR A DIVORCE IN COURT AT DENVER

Alleging that her husband, Henry C. Houts, beats her and that he drinks and gambles, Mrs. Caroline May Houts is suing for divorce in district court in Denver. Mrs. Houts states in her complaint that she and her husband were married at Colorado Springs in 1889 and that her husband now resides somewhere in El Paso county.

HUSBAND IS CHARGED BY WIFE WITH NON-SUPPORT

When W. G. Robinson returned to the city yesterday he was placed under arrest and is now in the custody of the sheriff. About a month ago a warrant was issued for the arrest of Robinson by Justice Ruby upon complaint of Mrs. Robinson. The charge against him was failing to contribute to the support of his wife and family.

The officers were unable to locate Robinson, owing to the fact that he had left the city. Yesterday morning he returned from Canon City, and going to his wife's home, 305 South Prospect street, sought admittance. Mrs. Robinson called the police and had her husband taken in charge for disturbance, and later swore to a complaint before Justice Ruby. The prisoner was also served with the warrant on the non-support charge and bond was fixed at $400, and at $200 on the disturbance charge. The cases will be called up for hearing today.

Hurrying Out the Men's Clothing Stock

IT'S a great undertaking to move such a heavy stock of clothing in a few weeks but it must be done and price must do it. Before we start on the general reconstruction of the first floor Jan. 1st every garment of men's and young men's clothing positively must be gone. Hundreds have already availed themselves of this opportunity and have secured one or more of our famous Kuppenheimer, College Brand or High Art suits or overcoats at wholesale cost.

From past experience you know that prices are always marked in plain figures here and that our policy of one price has remained firm. We will alter garments as usual but cannot send out any goods on approval.

WHEN YOU CATCH COLD

Do not take chances on it wearing away or experiment with some unknown preparation which may leave the bronchial tubes and lungs weakened and susceptible to attack from the germs of Pneumonia or Consumption.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Contains no opiates.

It Saved His Life After [illegible] He Had Consumption.

W. R. Davis, Visalia, California, writes: "There is no doubt but what Foley's Honey and Tar saved my life. I had an awful cough on my lungs and the doctor told me I had consumption. I commenced taking Foley's Honey and Tar and found relief from the first and three bottles cured me completely."

A Policeman's Testimony.

J. N. Patterson, night policeman, of Nashua, Iowa, writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least a half-dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world."

Three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00. The 50-cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much. Refuse Substitutes.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET WEAK THROUGH THE ENTIRE SESSION

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The weakness in wheat prevailed throughout the entire session. Selling was active and general the greater part of the day. At times the bull leaders supported the market openly by liberal purchases but efforts of this sort caused only small temporary rallies. Commission houses, while fair buyers at intervals, were compelled to execute numerous selling orders for stop-loss accounts, added materially to the weakness and gave additional encouragement to bears. Interest centered in the enormous shipments of wheat from Argentina. Total exports from the South American republic for the past week were 2,320,000 bushels, compared with only 752,000 bushels for the corresponding week a year ago.

A cablegram from Argentina reported the weather there as favorable for the new crop. Receipts at Minneapolis, Duluth and Winnipeg showed marked increase and helped to stimulate the selling movement here. The market closed weak at practically the lowest point of the day. May opened ⅛ to ¼c lower at 89¼@89⅜c, sold off at 88⅝c soon after the opening, and then declined to 88¼c. Final quotations were at 88⅝@88¾c.

The government report showing a total yield of 2,708,000,000 bushels of corn in the United States was chiefly responsible for a sharp break in corn prices. The bull leaders gave the market liberal support but could not hold up prices in the face of the generally bearish sentiment. The market closed weak with prices at about the lowest point of the day. May opened ⅛ to ¼c lower at 46¼c, sold between 45⅝ and 46⅝@47c and closed at 45⅝@¾c.

The oats market held comparatively steady. The market closed easy. May opened a shade lower at 32⅝c, sold between 32¼ and 32⅝c and closed at 32⅜c.

Provisions were a trifle easier on moderate selling by local packers. At the close May pork was off 7½c at $12.67½. Lard was down 2½c at $6.97½. Ribs were 2½@5c lower at $6.72½@$6.75.

BUSINESS GENERALLY BRISK; COLLECTIONS MUCH BETTER

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s review tomorrow will say:

Each week brings a stronger business situation, seasonable weather having removed the last drawback, and pressure for shipment of goods is so great in many lines that the partial holiday put deliveries still further behind and caused much inconvenience. Reports of wholesome conditions are now practically unanimous and improvement in collections is noted in many directions. Retail trade in wearing apparel and food stuffs is the feature, while interest is beginning to be shown in holiday goods, of which very few large stocks were accumulated in expectation of a record-breaking season. Manufacturing lines constantly establish new high-water marks of production, the present output of pig iron being at the rate of more than 2,000,000 tons monthly, and this is one of the best known business barometers.

Railway earnings thus far reported for October show a gain of 2.5 per cent over last year. Prosperity is also evidenced by a further rise in prices of commodities, Dun's index number on November being $103,853, the highest point of recent years. The per capita amount of money in circulation is also at a new record of $31.69. Foreign commerce is fully maintained, exports from this port being valued at $3,147,998 more than in the same week last year, and imports gaining $1,028,954.

Prices of hides have moved to new high records for any date since the civil war, and there is little difference even in comparison with that period of restricted production. Demand is now absorbing supplies so promptly that poor qualities of long-haired hides are scarcely less expensive than the choice summer take-off. Foreign dry hides share the strength of domestic lines.

Failures this week number 183 in the United States, as against 213 last year, and 19 in Canada, compared with 17 a year ago.

MOTHERS, DO YOU KNOW

the many so-called birth-medicines, and most remedies for women in the treatment of her delicate organs, contain more or less opium, morphine and strychnine?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not take internally any medicine for the pain accompanying pregnancy.

Do You Know that Mother's Friend is applied externally only?

Do You Know that Mother's Friend is a celebrated prescription, and that it has been in use over forty years, and that each bottle of the genuine bears the name of The Bradfield Regulator Co.?

Do you know that when you use this remedy during the period of gestation that you will be free of pain and bear healthy, hearty and clever children?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts. Of druggists at $1.00. Don't be persuaded to try a substitute. Our little book "Motherhood" free.

ST. THOMAS LESSEES OPEN A VALUABLE BODY OF ORE

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Nov. 10.—The best strike in many weeks made on Beacon hill is that of the St. Thomas, where J. W. and O. P. Phorson, lessees, are at work. At a depth of 40 feet they have discovered a shoot that runs $40 to $60 to the ton. Although the shaft has a depth of 350 feet, the lessees, who have [illegible] success in other parts of Beacon hill, chose the upper workings for the scene of their endeavor. They crosscut [illegible] feet south of the shaft, where the shoot was struck two weeks ago. Since that time they have been drifting steadily on the body. It has been opened for thirty feet horizontally and by a raise for eight or five feet. Throughout this distance its width averages thirty inches. The average gold content is from two to three ounces, although there are many streaks of exceptional quality. Screenings yield about $80.

A large slab is on exhibition at the St. Thomas office. It is decorated with sylvanite and native gold. A carload shipment will be marketed for trial in about a week. The lessees intend to stope to the surface if the shoot continues that far, before seeking an extension at depth. Operations at greater depth will be speedy and economical. Because of the ground being opened by shaft to the 350 foot point, the cost will be lessened. The direction of the shoot is north and south, about the same as that of the dike. It belongs to the Gold Dollar system, passing through the body being a seam of crystallized quartz which shows that a watercourse is part of the vein. These channels are often found where conditions are best on Beacon hill.

IRONCLAD HILL TO HAVE DEEP SHAFT

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Nov. 10.—There is prospect that Ironclad hill will have a deep shaft. The deepest point to which a vertical has penetrated is 600 feet and there are several other shafts that approach this depth. The deep workings will be made on the main block of the Jerry Johnson where the Gilpin Leasing company is at work. This avenue has a length of 550 feet. How far it will be continued has not been determined. Work is likely to start early next year. There is considerable ground of good appearance on existing levels that has not been prospected. Ore is being shipped from three points of the Jerry Johnson. Lessee Caley has started a carload from the Arapahoe. Occasional shipments are made from one of the dumps and frequent shipments are made by the Gilpin Leasing company.

RICH ORE IS SHIPPED FROM AXCELL CLAIM

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Nov. 10.—Thirty tons of ore left the Axcell claim of the Midway company today. It is expected to yield gold at the rate of almost $80 to the ton. This ore was broken in drifting at a depth of 156 feet by Oscar Fogelman and company, lessees. Settlements on previous lots, of which there were several, were effected at from $75 to $80 per ton. Plans are being laid for deep work in the Axcell. It is believed that conditions not unlike those exposed in the Wild Horse, where over $1,000,000 in ore was removed from one shoot.

M'KINNEY DUMP LESSEES PROSPER

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Nov. 10.—Two carloads of ore were shipped today by lessees of the Mary McKinney dump. One was by Rinker and company, operating the Howard dump, and the other by Synkiewicz and company, who are pulling down the main dump. Rinker and company get $20 for the coarse ore and $80 for the slime. Four men are at work. Lessees at the main dump get about $15 for their ore. Shipments from these sources are heavy.

CERTIFICATE FILED.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Nov. 10.—A certificate of levy on the Grace Arthur extension and the Standard mined and tunnel site to satisfy a judgment obtained by Jacob Wallace vs. the Cripple Creek T. T. and M. Co. was filed in the county clerk's office today.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT IS THE FEATURE OF PRESENT MARKET

All the Leading Markets Loaded With Appetizing Palate Teasers—Read the List and Low Prices Made on The Gazette's Feature Grocery Page 7.

Even the most jaded and surfeited appetite can be brought back to life by a trip among the enterprising local markets, and by careful personal inspection of the tempting food delicacies displayed in great profusion everywhere in the markets whose announcements you will find on our special grocery page.

And the prices are as low as the same foods can be bought for back east, as a careful perusal of the Gazette advertisements will prove.

The local grocers are a live set of merchants and strive to keep up with the advance and early markets, getting the season's latest as fast as it can be secured. The approach of Thanksgiving is the signal for a lot of new products and you will find them in already at most of the markets represented on page 7. Turkeys, Springs, sweet potatoes, grapes, cranberries, celery, watercress, lettuce, cauliflower, tomatoes, citron, radishes, oysters, cucumbers, parsley, mint, quinces, apples, nuts, fruits and all kinds of vegetables and staples are advertised in The Gazette at prices all can afford.

O. E. Hemenway, at 115 South Tejon, offers a list a little in advance of the market at tempting prices. The Keystone, at 112 South Tejon, has a special sale on today which will interest you. The Peoples market, at 222 East Pike's Peak, have a story of quality at little money, with prices to prove it. The Dickey Grocery Co., at 24 North Tejon, have a special list of Saturday bargains and pay particular attention to their bakery department. The Heatherbell market, at 128 North Tejon, make a bid for supplying some of your Sunday dinner at prices that will attract you. The Golden Rule market, at 128-130 South Nevada have an appetizing list that deserves some of your trade. The Colorado Springs Mercantile Co., on East Cucharas, gives a lot of prices that save money. Burgess, at 112 North Tejon, who is doubling the size of his store, has a story of hot cakes and maple syrup that fairly makes the mouth water. Colorado City is represented by the Progressive Avenue market, at 523½ Colorado Avenue. The southern part of the city bids for attention with the M. Q. West market, at 725 Sierra Madre street, and West's Cash Grocery, at 1402 South Tejon, a new advertiser, with a good story. The extreme north neighborhood is ably represented by J. W. Doolen, at 1528 North Tejon. J. C. Ashton, at 216 North Tejon, asks for your patronage and with prices that will undoubtedly secure some of it.

This list includes all the big markets, and if you cannot find what you want to eat in the list, you need a doctor, not a grocer.

Do you know the exact cost of any and every article you manufacture? Can you ascertain this cost instantly, or are you compelled to wait until you balance your books?

Are your office accounts a check on your production accounts, and cost accounts a check on your office accounts?

Consultation with an expert in these matters will save many times the small fee charged.
